Week of April 23, 2017

Breaking the Ice

1. Did you grow up in an openly "religious" home, or was it more of a private matter?
2. Were you taught any rote prayers as a child? Do you recall them?

Digging In

3. Share the notes you took during the worship service. Did you learn anything new?
4. Read Matthew 6: 5-15 and discuss.
5. How does hypocrisy effect prayer?
6. Why should we avoid wordiness in our prayers?
7. In Jesus' model prayer (vv.9-13), what three concerns related to God did he pray about first?
8. What is the relationship between forgiveness and prayer?

Reflect

9. In what way can prayer be misused to impress others?
10. When have you given in to that temptation? Why?
11. What bad habits have you picked up in prayer?

Pray

12. Ask that your prayers would be honoring to God and not be a means of seeking praise for yourself.
13. Pray the Lord's Prayer together, not as a rote prayer, but as it is meant to be prayed; honoring God and seeking his will in what you ask.
14. Pray for the members of your group and their needs.

JUST LIVE IT!
